Volunteers honored with President's Call to Service Award

By Naples Daily News staff report
Thursday, March 13, 2008

Mary Pat Hussey and Arlene Nichols have been honored with the President's Call to Service Award, the highest honor offered in recognition of volunteer service.

To qualify, Hussey and Nichols had to complete a minimum of 4,000 volunteer hours to an organization or cause. Both volunteer and serve on the board of the Boys & Girls Club of Collier County, working with the children, leading community leaders on tour of the facility and spearheading the capital campaign that raised more than $16 million to build a campus that will serve 1,000 young people each day.

For more information on the award, visit www.PresidentialServiceAwards.gov or call 1-866-545-5307.
